Discriminate against any person on the grounds of age, gender, disability, race, language, ethnic origin, nationality, colour, parental or marital status, pregnancy, religious belief, class or social background, sexual orientation, gender reassignment or political belief.

Disciplinary Procedures

Penalties and / or disqualifications

Membership and participation in our events is a privilege, not a right. Behaviour which is damaging to our Association / club or its membership will not be tolerated. Violation of any of the following provisions may subject a member to disqualification from our events, being denied entry to events or suspension from the Association / club.

1. Any act in connection with a approved show or other business in violation of this section by a member of the family of a member may be deemed to have been committed by the member and subject him or her to penalties.
2. Any act deemed prejudicial to the best interests of the club may result in the suspension of a member, including but not limited to the following.
 - a. Using abusive or intemperate language or attempting to threaten, bribe, influence or harass any contestant, show official or show official. Also, any remarks made with the intent to cast aspersions on the character or integrity of a official or show official.
 - b. Moving or attempting to move markers at any time.
 - c. Use of electronic and/or remotely controlled devices to alter the outcome of a run.
 - d. Abuse of a horse in any way.

- e. Competing while under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
 - f. Misidentifying a horse in any class will disqualify a contestant.
 - g. Other conduct that is not in the best interest of the club or its members.
 - i. Show Management and/or other officials at their sole discretion shall have the authority to disqualify or deny entry to any horse they deem dangerous to the rider, or to other individuals, animals or property.
3. A member who has been suspended or disqualified under this section may appeal. The date, time, and location of such meeting will be determined by the President. The decisions of such appeals committee shall be final and binding on all parties.

Notices

Any notice to be given to any person in accordance with these Rules, shall be given in writing. A notice may be given to any member either personally or by email or by sending it by post to their registered address.

Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be affected 24 hours after posting of such letter.

Protests and Complaints

Persons who believe a rule violation or infraction has occurred at an event, may file a written protest with 4 Strides Equestrian UK LTD, Willow Farm, Brant Road, Fulbeck Lincolnshire NG323JA
The written protest must be accompanied by a £50 protest fee.

The protest must be made within 7 days of the incident which is being protested. If the protest proves to be valid, the £50 protest fee will be returned to the person filing the protest. If the protest proves to be invalid, the protest fee will not be returned. This is the ONLY manner in which a protest or complaint will be accepted.

In certain cases, determined by the President, the club may reserve the right to return the £50 protest fee even if the protest proves to be invalid.

(NOTE: This rule does not prevent Directors and Show Managers from correcting obvious problems brought to their attention, without the submission of a written protest fee.)

Any situation not covered under these rules shall be decided by the president or other staff officials on site.

Forfeitures

Any rider participating in a class or division in which he/she is not eligible will forfeit the earnings or awards.

It is the responsibility of the ineligible and or disciplined member and/or owner to return all forfeited earnings and awards.

Upon receipt of any forfeited earnings and awards the club we will make corrections to the class placings and earnings in the records.

Notice of Findings, Penalties and Appeals

The Association / club will, within 30 days, notify the complainant and the accused in writing of the findings of the investigation, of any penalties imposed and the right of appeal as provided for in the rules. Other than as provided for in the above rules, the findings of and penalties imposed by the association / club shall be final and binding on all parties in every case.

Publication of Findings and Penalties

The Association / club may at their absolute discretion publish any disciplinary ruling or direction made concerning any personal matter in such manner as they shall think fit, whether in the public press circulating throughout or in any part of the United Kingdom, or abroad and/or on television or sound broadcasting, and/or to and through any news of broadcasting agency or agent, or otherwise and every member of the Association / club shall be deemed to have consented thereto.

Agreement to Be Bound by the Rules

Membership in the Association / club carries certain responsibilities as well as rights. Any member of the Association / club may be disciplined, fined or suspended upon a showing of good cause.

Any non-member may be denied membership and the privileges attached thereto, whenever it shall be established by satisfactory evidence that such non-member is not a worthy candidate.

Every member of the Association / club, by the completion of their membership payment, agree to be bound by the Constitution of the Association / club and all rules, regulations and bylaws made hereunder.

Amendments

Any amendments made during the course of the year must be sent out to all members to inform them of any changes that may affect them.

Safeguarding Children and Adults.

The association / club is fully committed to and accepts its legal and moral obligations to comply with its duty of care, to protect all children and vulnerable adults and safeguard their welfare.

Members need to be aware that the association does NOT allow the videoing of its events.
Videoing of personal runs is allowed for personal use.

If any parent or youth has any concerns of the videoing of events then they should contact the show organisers and if need be, the Association / club President. Any member with a concern at any time relating to child protection should make contact the Association / club's President.

Horses

Horses taking part in competition must be healthy and compete on their inherent merits.

The use of a prohibited substance might influence the horse's performance or mask an underlying health problem and could falsely affect the outcome of competition.

If any Horse or competitor is found using prohibited substances they will be subject to elimination from competition and also possible expulsion from the Association / club.

Policies

The Association / club adopts the policies as set out by 4 Strides Equestrian UK LTD. Therefore the Association / club also has a Complaints and Appeals policy in place.

All policies are subject to constant review and are therefore not contained in this Handbook.
Those currently in force can be viewed on www.4stridesequestrian.co.uk and can be downloaded from the site.
